

EX-KEELEY PHYSICIAN TOOK TREATMENT AT JAMES SANATORIUM FOR DRUNKENNESS. AYS JAMES TREATMENT SUPERIOR:

Produced Refreshing Sleep, Quieted His Nerves, Improved His Appetite—Was Allowed All Stimulants Wanted—After Second Day Had No Desire for Whiskey.

NO CONFINEMENT—NO UNPLEASANT SYMPTOMS.

It is evident, judging from the following letter, that the James treatment is doing all that is claimed for it in giving relief to the unfortunate who have fallen victims to Narcotic Drugs or Alcoholic Stimulants:

Dr. T. J. Cooke, formerly physician-in-charge of the Keeley Institute at Lampasas, Tex., and Vicksburg, Miss., investigates and acknowledges the superiority of the treatment as administered at James Sanatorium:

"I was physician-in-charge of the Keeley Institute at Vicksburg, Miss., for one month, and was transferred from there and placed in charge of the Keeley Institute at Lampasas, Tex., where I remained for eight months. After leaving the Keeley service I investigated other cures, but none proved sufficiently satisfactory for me to engage in their administration.

"Finally my attention was called, through the medical journals, to Mr. James' claims for his discovery, and as he published their formula to the world, I at once saw that the combination of drugs they were using was a good one, and one which was bound to relieve the unfortunate sufferer from conditions involving the nervous system.

"I therefore entered James' Sanatorium on the 8th day of January. "I was allowed to have all the stimulants I wanted, but after the second day's treatment I had no further desire. The remedies seemed to have hit the spot."

"My sleep, which had been unrefreshing, my nerves, which had been terribly unstrung—and my appetite, which had been capricious—all seemed to assume a normal condition on the third day, and from that time on I improved greatly in flesh and vigor."
